

CHINA: Cold Wave - Jan 2008

The most serious snowstorms in 30 years have affected 14 provinces and 77.8 million people, causing 24 deaths so far. About 107,000 houses have collapsed and 827,000 people have relocated. 4.1 million hectares of farmland are affected. Direct economic loss is estimated to reach RMB22 billion.

- Hong Kong Red Cross, 28 Jan 2008

0 250Km

ReliefWeb

The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations. Map created 30 January 2008.

*Dotted line represents approximately the Line of Control in Jammu and Kashmir agreed upon by India and Pakistan. The final status of Jammu and Kashmir has not yet been agreed upon by the parties.